

Morphemic Manifold

A brick;

A neat, well-aligned barrier;

A shape learned, or lived inside of;

A hole or window, to peer into.

A gift, specifically, one that was waited for.

Spheres that pull.

A downward stride, in a known direction;

An apple, or a fig, surely,

someone must know what it is, exactly;

Whatever it is, I want another one.

Please.
